

Orange Renewable conferred with the “Emerging Leader of the Year – Developer” Excellence Award at the Indian Wind Energy Forum (IWEF) 2015

New Delhi, 30th November 2015 : Orange Renewable, a 100% subsidiary of AT Holdings Pte Ltd, Singapore, received the “Emerging Leader of the Year – Developer ” Excellence Award for outstanding achievements and leadership in the Wind Energy sector, at the Indian Wind Energy Forum (IWEF) 2015. The award ceremony was held on 24-25 November, 2015 at Radisson Blu in New Delhi.

The IWEF awards aim to recognize and applaud the efforts of leading performers and achievers of the Industry. Since its inception, it has celebrated the best performing companies and people for their achievements and contributions, while acknowledging the best deals, projects and innovation in the renewable energy sphere.

Speaking on the occasion , Sudhir Nunes, CEO Orange Renewable said,“ It is an honor and privilege to have earned this prestigious recognition in a short span of time. The award is a testimony of our commitment to renewable energy in India and our endeavor to develop clean energy solutions for future generations.”

During the past year, Orange Renewable has tripled its operational Wind Power capacity from 60 MW to 179 M. It has further commissioned 27 MW and signed contracts for execution of 350MW of Wind Power projects. The 100.5MW Mamatkhedha wind power project commissioned earlier this year is one of the largest single location wind power projects to be self-developed by an Indian independent power producer (IPP). With its commissioning, Orange Renewable has joined a select group of wind IPPs, who have commissioned self-developed projects.

An independent panel of recognized and expert judges, representing the industry, determined the winners of the esteemed awards. The judges brought their extensive knowledge, enthusiasm and expertise to the judging debate ensuring that the winning product or service is truly outstanding and worthy of receiving the ultimate accolade. The panel was carefully selected to ensure the Awards judging process is fair and objective. A comprehensive judging process was put together to decide the worthy winners of the Awards.
